§ 694-9.1. Renewal of permits for development signs.

[Added 2011-12-01 by By-law 1382-2011¹⁰]

- A. Prior to the expiry of a sign permit for a development sign, an application may be submitted to the Chief Building Official to renew the sign permit for a further period of one year provided no modifications or restorations are proposed to the sign.
- B. Where a modification or restoration to a development sign is proposed, an application shall be submitted to the Chief Building Official for a new sign permit pursuant to § 694-5 of this chapter.

§ 694-10. Renewal of permits for third party signs.

- A. Prior to the expiry of a sign permit for a third party sign, an application may be submitted to the Chief Building Official to renew the sign permit for a further period of five years provided no modifications or restorations are proposed to the sign.
- B. Where a modification or restoration to a third party sign is proposed, an application shall be submitted to the Chief Building Official for a new sign permit pursuant to § 694-5 of this chapter.
- C. The applicant for a renewal of a sign permit for a third party sign shall file with the City the information and documents in the form and manner approved by the Chief Building Official and shall pay the fee prescribed in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges.
- D. A third party sign permit shall only be renewed if the sign continues to comply in all respects with this chapter.
- E. Notwithstanding Subsection D, where an application is made to renew a permit for a third party sign which no longer complies with § 694-22D because a variance or by-law amendment was granted by the City permitting the erection of another third party sign, the sign permit shall be renewed.

§ 694-11. Transfer of permit.

- A. Where a sign permit for a third party sign has been transferred by the sign owner to a new sign owner, the new sign owner shall provide written notification of the transfer to the City in the form and manner approved by the Chief Building Official and shall pay the fee prescribed in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges.

CHAPTER 694, SIGNS, GENERAL

§ 694-12. Inspection.

- A. The Chief Building Official may enter upon or into any premises at any reasonable time to inspect a sign for the purpose of determining whether it complies with any sign permit and the provisions of this chapter.
- B. A sign owner shall provide the Chief Building Official with 48 hours' advance notice of the erection, modification or restoration of a sign for which a sign permit has been issued.
- C. A sign owner shall provide the Chief Building Official with notice of the completion of the erection, modification, or restoration of a sign for which a sign permit has been issued within 48 hours thereof.

§ 694-13. Revocation.

- A. The Chief Building Official may revoke a sign permit where:
 - (1) The erection, display, modification, or restoration of the sign authorized by the sign permit has not, in the opinion of the Chief Building Official, been seriously commenced within six months of the date of the issuance of the sign permit;
 - (2) The erection, display, modification, or restoration of the sign authorized by the sign permit has not, in the opinion of the Chief Building Official, been substantially completed within 12 months of the date of the issuance of the sign permit;
 - (3) The sign permit was issued on mistaken, false, or incorrect information;
 - (4) The sign permit was issued in error;
 - (5) The sign owner requests in writing that the sign permit be revoked;
 - (6) Any fees due under this chapter have not been paid;
 - (7) A notice of violation has been issued by the Chief Building Official under § 694-28 and the sign has not been brought into compliance with this chapter within 14 days;
 - (8) Any required approval obtained as listed in § 694-5B of this chapter has been revoked, rescinded or retracted; or
 - (9) The sign permit was issued on the basis of a variance from this chapter granted with conditions under § 694-30 and there has not been compliance with a condition imposed, or a condition has been breached.
- B. Before revoking a sign permit, the Chief Building Official shall provide the sign owner and any other person as the Chief Building Official deems appropriate with written notice of his or her intention to revoke the sign permit.
